Foreword . . .

We, the third Senior Class of the Soddy-Daisy High School present the 1940 TROJAN as a symbol of the respect and admiration we have for the spirit and standards of our school. In this publication we have endeavored to include a few of the incidents that we know will prove beautiful and lasting memories of our happy school life.

We are justly proud of the progress our school has made the past three years in a co-operative and spiritual way; our progress in mutual friendship and Christian fellowship and our progress in the development of our minds and bodies. The Senior Class sincerely hopes that all succeeding classes will see fit to cherish standards of high Christian character and noble ideals and the fine school spirit which is so characteristic of our enthusiastic students. These standards we hope you, the succeeding classes, cherish in all your work and play.

May this third volume of the TROJAN be followed by more and better TROJANS from the Soddy-Daisy High School.

Dedication

To Mr. W. H. Bell, whose co-operation in all school projects and whose ceaseless efforts have made possible the school annual for three consecutive years, we, the Senior class and faculty, dedicate this the 1940 issue of the Soddy-Daisy High School Annual—"The TROJAN."

Alma Mater

Our strong band can ne'er be broken,
Formed in S. D. High
Far surpassing wealth unspoken,
Seal'd by friendship's tie.

Chorus

Soddy-Daisy, Soddy-Daisy,
Deep graven on each heart,
Shall be found unwav'ring true,
When we from life shall part.

High School life at best is passing,
Gliding swiftly by;
Then let us pledge in word and deed,
Our love for S. D. High.

Memory's leaflets close shall twine,
Around our hearts for aye;
And waves of life shall waft us back,
To memories long gone by.

OPPORTUNITY

They do me wrong who say I come no more
When once I knock and fail to find you in;
For every day I stand outside your door,
And bid you wake, and rise to fight and win.
Wail not for golden ages on the wane;
Each night I burn the records of the day;
At sunrise every soul is born again.

Laugh like a boy at splendors that have sped.
To vanished joys be blind and deaf and dumb;
My judgments seal the dead past with its dead;
But never blind a moment yet to come.
Though deep in mire wring not your hands and weep,
I lend my arm to all who say "I can!"
No shamfaced outcast ever sank so deep
But yet might rise and be again a man;

Dost thou behold the lost youth all aghast?
Dost reel from righteous retributions blow?
Then turn from blotted archives of the past
And find the future's pages white as snow.
Art thou a mourner? Rouse thee from thy spell!
Art thou a sinner? Sins may be forgiven;
Each morning gives thee wings to flee from hell,
Each night a star to guide thy feet to heaven!

—Walter Malone.

THE COST

If the goal is worth possessing it is worth its price in pain,
If you have a dream worth holding it's worth struggling to attain
For the joys that last the longest, as the distant bends are turned,
Are not the easy splendors, but the joys which you have earned.

If you'd reach the mountain's summit you must have the will to climb.
If you'd rise to fame and glory you must work and bide your time.
For the victory that's sweetest when life's full returns are in,
Is the one that tried your patience and took all your strength to win.

If you hold a high ambition, you must be prepared to wait:
You must trudge the road of courage and must bear the blows of fate;
You must face your years of labor and press forward with a smile.
For it's how you've fought to gain it, that will make your goal worth while

Morale

If you think your are beaten, you are;
If you think you dare not, you don't.
If you'd like to win, but you think you can't,
It's almost a cinch you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you're lost,
For out of the world we find
Success begins with a fellow's will—
It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are;
You've got to think high to rise.
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.

Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man;
But soon or late the man who wins
Is the one who thinks he can.

COACH MATUSEK

Coach Matusek should be congratulated for the team he has developed. We know the school appreciates the work he and his assistants, Coach Seaton have done in the past three years and wish them the best of luck next year.

CAPTAIN ROSS (Butch) CLIFT

Butch was every bit a fine captain as he was a player. He was chosen as all conference half back in '38 and also '39. Butch with his excellent punting and running will be missed in the years to come.

ARTHUR (Boggy) CURVIN

Boggy has played three years of football. This year he was chosen all conference end. With his blocking, passing and catching he should be a great help to the team next year.

MILLARD (Bunk) HACKNEY

Bunk who held down his position was good on the offense as well as the defense and could block and tackle with the best of them. Chosen an all Conference tackle he will be back to help the team. Bunk was also elected as next year's captain.

EUGENE (Gene) VARNER

Gene was especially good on defense. He has many tackles behind the line of scrimmage to his credit. He was an all conference guard last year and repeated the honor this year. He will be greatly missed.

MARCUS (Beck) GANN

Beck although light had plenty of nerve and played hard at all times. He received honorable mention as all conference guard.

WARREN CLAYTON

Warren although light made an excellent showing as guard. He could be counted on and when a play was called his way he always got his men. Warren received honorable mention as all conference guard.

ROLAND POE

Roland made an excellent showing for only one year's experience.

CHARLES (Flop) LYNCH

Flop was a good defense as well as an offensive end. He will be missed.

BILL (Squirrely) NELSON

Bill was a fine passer as well as a runner. He will be missed.

LEE MULKEY

Lee was a fine fullback and when a yard was needed he was the boy to carry the pigskin. He was also Alternate Captain. He will be missed.

JAMES (Blackie) MOORE

Blackie played quarter back and did an excellent job of it and will be missed.

WILLARD GRANT

Willard played quarter back and did an excellent job of it and the team will miss him.

CLIFFORD AND CECIL LOGAN

These two brothers proved that when put into a game that they could take it. Clifford will not be back next year, but Cecil will see plenty of service next year.

ARTHUR SMEDLY and ARNOLD SMITH

Smedly was good on defense and could be counted on to make any tackles behind the line of scrimmage.

Smith made an excellent showing for only one year of experience.

JAMES (Monk) MULKEY and DUVAL HAWK

Monk played excellent ball for one year's experience and will be a great help to the team.

WADE MASTERSON AND JAMES CLIFT

Wade and James, though freshmen, looked pretty good and we will see a lot of them.

JIM COX and HOBART MAXWELL

Jim, although light, showed everyone that he had what it takes to be a center. He will be back. Hobart was every bit a fine fullback. He could kick and run with the best of them. When he was called on, he did his best with force.

HOMER SMITH

Homer's first year in football was good. Although he had no experience, he showed that he could take it.

MEMORIES

So often life just trudges on,
We only know it's passing by;
And then we hear a note, a song,
From out the years a haunting cry.

We pause, and live again the years
That we have trod so oft before.
We feel again the joys and tears—
And then we softly close the door.

And travel on our way again
With life that now seems commonplace
But in the years to come will gain
A place that time cannot efface.

— O. Barnes Dayton

ARTISTS

The world contains many an artist,
Who knows not the technique of art;
Who knows not the tricks of the rhymers,
And yet is a poet at heart;
Who knows not the use of a chisel,
Nor the deftness of eye or of hand,
But whose spirit is filled with a longing
He never can quite understand.

There are painters who never touch canvas,
Musicians who ever are still,
Who have not the gift of expression,
Lack adequate training and skill,
There are men with the dreams of the masters
Who never are known unto fame,
Whose spirits are filled with a music
And beauty they never can name.

There are poems unsung and unspoken,
Transcending the limits of art;
There are visions unpainted that linger
In the innermost realms of the heart;
There are writers who never have written
And sculptors who delve not in stone;
There are spirits who thrill with a message,
Yet strive on in silence alone.

Mayhap there's fruition and answer
Somewhere in the regions of bliss,
In worlds that are yet undiscovered,
For unfulfilled longings in this.
At last they may find their lost visions,
At last they may reach to the goal,
The ones who fall short of expression
And yet who are artists in soul.

—J. A. Edgerton

COMPLIMENTS OF

A FRIEND

A CREED

Men may seem sundered from each other; but the soul that each possesses, and the destiny common to all, invest them with a basic brotherhood.

There is a destiny that makes us brothers:

None goes his way alone:

All that we send into the lives of others

Comes back into our own.

I care not what his temples or his creeds,

One thing holds firm and fast—

That into his fateful heap of days and deeds

The soul of a man is cast.
